The event will be inaugurated by Prime Minister Narendra Modi, with New Zealand Prime Minister Christopher Luxon as the chief guest delivering the keynote address.

This year's theme, "Kalachakra—People, Peace, and Planet," will guide discussions across six thematic pillars, including shifting political dynamics, environmental challenges, digital governance, trade complexities, development strategies, and peace initiatives.

The conference will host over 3,500 participants from approximately 125 countries, featuring foreign ministers, former heads of state, military commanders, industry leaders, technology innovators, academics, journalists, and strategic affairs experts.

The Raisina Dialogue is organised by the Observer Research Foundation in collaboration with India's Ministry of External Affairs.

The event serves as a platform for global leaders to engage in cross-sectoral discussions, addressing the most pressing issues facing the international community.

Key Geopolitical Topics and Thematic Discussions at Raisina Dialogue 2025

The Raisina Dialogue 2025, themed "Kālachakra—People, Peace, and Planet," will focus on six key thematic pillars to address pressing global issues. Here are the key geopolitical topics and thematic discussions:

#1. Politics Interrupted: Shifting Sands and Rising Tides

Examines the changing nature of global politics and emerging geopolitical tensions, including shifts in power dynamics and the impact of rising nationalism.

#2. Resolving the Green Trilemma: Who, Where, & How

Debates solutions for sustainable development, climate action, and energy security. This includes discussions on balancing economic growth with environmental protection and ensuring equitable access to resources.

#3. Digital Planet: Agents, Agencies, and Absences

Explores the impact of artificial intelligence, cybersecurity, and the evolving digital landscape on global governance and security. It will delve into issues like data privacy, digital sovereignty, and the role of technology in international relations.

#4. Militant Mercantilism: Trade, Supply Chains & the Exchange Rate Addiction

Addresses global trade disruptions, economic policies, and financial stability. This includes discussions on protectionism, supply chain resilience, and the challenges posed by exchange rate fluctuations.

#5. The Tiger's Tale: Rewriting Development with a New Plan

Discusses innovative approaches to economic growth, infrastructure development, and global development strategies. It focuses on sustainable development models and how emerging economies can drive global growth.

#6. Investing in Peace: Drivers, Institutions, & Leadership

Focuses on diplomacy, conflict resolution, and the role of international institutions in maintaining peace. It explores how leadership and institutional frameworks can foster peace and stability in a rapidly changing world.
